Risk Assessment
Assess the risk of children being drawn into terrorism.	Staff can demonstrate a general understanding of the risks affecting children and young people.	All staff have read 'Keeping Children Safe in Education Updated September 2024'. The Prevent Lead (Senior DSL) has informed staff of their duties as set out in 'The Prevent Duty' (DfE, June 2015, updated 2021).	Prevent Lead All staff
	Staff can identify individual children who may be at risk of radicalisation and how to support them.	The Prevent Lead has informed staff about signs and indicators of radicalisation.	Prevent Lead
	There is a clear procedure in place for protecting children at risk of radicalisation.	All staff have read the Child Protection Policy which includes a statement regarding the school's Prevent duty. All staff understand how to record and report concerns regarding risk of radicalisation.	All staff
	The school has identified a Prevent Lead.	All staff know who the Prevent Lead is (Senior DSL) and that this person acts as a source of advice and support.	All staff premises.	Deny permission for people/organisations to use school premises if they have links to extreme groups or movements. Provide justification for their decisions in writing.

Working in Partnership
The school is using existing local partnership arrangements in exercising its Prevent duty.	Staff record and report concerns in line with existing policies and procedures.	All staff record and report concerns on CPOMS after discussion with a DSL.	All staff
	The Prevent Lead makes appropriate referrals to other agencies including the Multi-Agency Safeguarding Hub (MASH).	Referrals are followed up appropriately and uploaded to CPOMS.	Prevent Lead
Staff Training
Equip staff to identify children at risk of being drawn into terrorism and to challenge extremist ideas.	Assess the training needs of staff in the light of the school's assessment of the risk to pupils at the school of being drawn into terrorism.	As a minimum the school should: Ensure that the designated safeguarding leads undertake Prevent Awareness Training. Ensure that the designated safeguarding leads are able to provide advice and support to other members of staff on protecting children from the risk of radicalisation. Relevant staff and governors have completed the National College Prevent Guidance and annual certificates in Cyber Security.	DSLs Prevent Lead All staff
IT Policies
Ensure that children are safe from terrorist and extremist material when accessing the internet in schools.	The school has policies in place which make reference to the Prevent duty.	Child Protection Policy. Anti-Radicalisation Policy. E safety Policy. Anti-bullying Policy.	Prevent Lead
	Children are taught about on-line safety.	The curriculum reflects this duty.	All staff

Building children's resilience to radicalisation
Ensure that pupils have a safe environment in which to discuss controversial issues.	Pupils develop 'the knowledge, skills and understanding to prepare them to play a full and active part in society'.	Through PSHE ('Talking Points'). HeartSmart, and other curriculum activities, pupils are able to explore religious, moral and social issues at an age-appropriate level. Pupils are taught about diversity in the UK and the need for mutual respect. Relevant staff are aware of the government guidance: https://www.gov.uk/government/news/guidance-on-promoting-british-values-in-schools-published	All staff
